GOLF ASSOCIATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 30, 2018

Puerto Rico Wins the Ambrose Gouthro Cup at the 2018 Caribbean Golf Association's 2018 Four-Ball Championships.

This year's event, organized by the Caribbean Golf Association and hosted by PGA National in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, counted with the participation of 9 countries: Bahamas, Barbados, Cayman Islands, Dominican Republic, Jamaica, Trinidad & Tobago, Turks & Caicos, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

With this victory, Team PRGA wins the Grand Slam of the Caribbean by winning all three majors this year; the Caribbean Amateur Junior Golf Championships, the Caribbean Amateur Golf Championships and the Caribbean Four-Ball Championships.

PRGA President Sidney Wolf mentioned, "it gives me great pleasure and I am feeling very proud after what we all suffered with Maria".
