PRGA STROKE PLAY SERIES – EVENT #3
RIO MAR COUNTRY CLUB

The third event of the 2018 PRGA Stroke Play Series was played on both Ocean and River courses at Rio Mar Country Club this past weekend ending with a wire-to-wire win for Erick Juan Morales.

Morales finished the 1st round tied with buddy Max Alverio, but as Alverio faltered, Morales – whom struggled with his putting – maintained the errors to a minimum earning medalist honors with a total of 221 strokes.

In the Boys 15 &U category, Carlos Nieves wins for the first times this season with 159 strokes.

Kelvin Hernandez (156) and Javier Doble (157) traded shots back-and-forth in the Boys 13 &U category, but it was Hernandez who by 1 stroke earning back-to-back wins.

Next event for the PRGA is its showcase tournament, the PRGA Championship, June 8-10, 2018 at Rio Mar Country Club.
